THE VIANNITE

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS
OF
ST. JOHN VIANNEY HIGH SCHOOL
Flint, Michigan

IN DEDICATION

MONSIGNOR HENRY M. MAYOTTE

It is with deep gratitude and lasting respect that we, the Class of 1957, dedicate this, the first Viannite, to Monsignor Henry M. Mayotte in recognition of his devoted interest, efforts, and guidance for our spiritual and temporal progress.

ST. JOHN VIANNEY CHURCH

1030 BLAIR STREET

FLINT 4. MICHIGAN

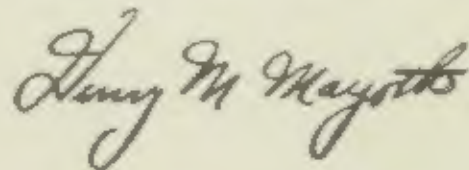

My dear Students:

St. John Vianney School, being just a new school, is in the process of establishing traditions. This first issue of the school yearbook will be followed by many succeeding issues. All future issues of the yearbook will be patterned after the first. If later issues are superior to the present one, it will be because these issues will be founded on excellent ground-work done by you, the pioneers.

St. John Vianney High School is a school with an objective. Its objective is to produce leaders for the years to come. In seeking to achieve its objective, St. John Vianney High School employs spiritual and material means. We, who are in charge of the school, believe that true leadership can be given only by those who are learned and whose learning is closely allied to God--The Beginning and End of all.

It is our hope then, that in years to come, the students of this school will be found among the leaders of their day: leaders in the priesthood, leaders in the teaching profession, leaders in the civil life, leaders in medicine and social work and leaders in a truly Christian family life. It is with this hope in mind that we bless you and your work that God, through you, may enrich the world.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Henry M. Mayotte". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the printed name.

Henry M. Mayotte

"Behold a great priest, who in his days pleased God."
Ecclus. 44, 16.

His Excellency Most Reverend Joseph H. Albers, D. D., J. C. D.
Bishop of Lansing

"The Lord made to him a covenant of peace, and made him a prince, that the dignity of priesthood should be to him for ever."
Ecclus. 45, 30.

Reverend Father Carl B. Reikowsky, C. P. p. S.
Assistant Pastor

THE FRESHMAN CLASS

WE PROGRESS SPIRITUALLY

The Freshmen Boys' Sodality is preparing for a meeting.

The Sodalties of Our Blessed Mother are striving to become more perfect through her.

Different groups of the Sodalties have been doing projects to help others. They have taught catechism, made baskets at Thanksgiving and Christmas time for the poor. They have also collected toys and money to give to the needy children.

AN ARMY OF YOUTH BEARING

The Sodality Prefect of the high school and the Senior Prefect with their model, Our Blessed Mother.

The Senior Girls' Sodality hears some news on the T.S.S.A.

Our ever ready Moderator willing to help us with our smallest problems.

Rita Geary explains the Sodality rules to the girls of the Freshman Sodality.

Spiritual reading is a main activity of the Sophomore Sodality.

THE STANDARDS OF TRUTH

Junior Sodalists discuss the importance and benefits of daily Communion.

Strong comrades of Mary can be found in the Boys High School Sodality.

PARTICIPANTS IN OUR DAILY OFFERING

Holy Communion-- "This is My Body. This is My Blood. Eat of this and you shall have life in you."

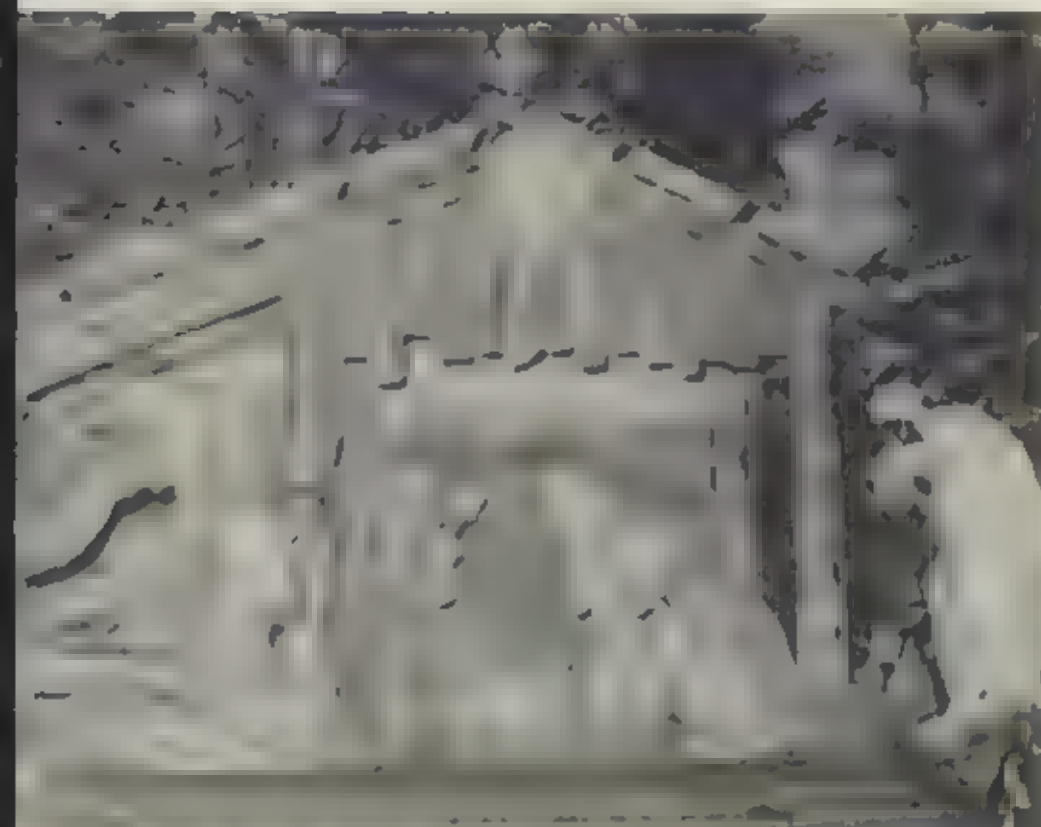

The choir under the direction of Sister Charles Marie gives highest praise to God. Their voices are blended with the accompaniment of Joyce DeShano, Patricia Sartor, and Catherine Beahan.

The altarboys take an active participation in the sacrifice of the Mass.

OUR SPIRIT THROUGH CHRIST

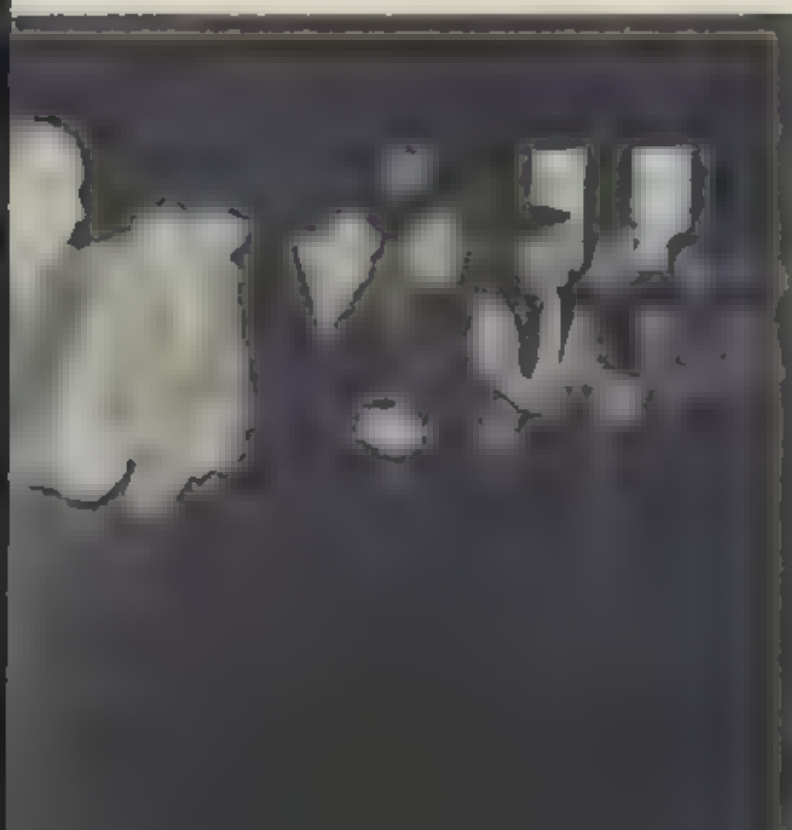

This beautiful crib scene in Church greeted us during the Christmas Season. "Oh, Come Let Us Adore Him!"

The Sophomores presented their interpretation of "The Littlest Angel" at the Christmas school program.

The team at benediction prays for a successful game.

Prayers of the student body aid in victory.

MARY REPARATRIX

This is the chapel where the retreatants went to Mass and Communion every day. It was visited often during the day for meditation as well as for morning, afternoon, and evening prayers.

Father Rolenkotter, our retreat master, gave inspiring talks on down-to-earth-every-day occurrences. Remember his one talk on the passion and death of Christ?

"Mary Reparatrix"

"Our Sorrowful Mother with the Crucified Christ"

CHANNELS OF GRACE

God's graces are bestowed on the students at benediction.

"Remember man that thou art dust and into dust thou shall return."

The Senior girls stop a minute from their school work to visit St. Joseph.

Students make frequent use of the opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Penance.

Stations of the Cross is a Lenten practice of St. John students.

WE PROGRESS INTELLECTUALLY

Senior English students gather information for their term papers.

The Sophomores watch, while two students diagram a sentence on the board.

Mr. Bester's third year English class study American Literature.

Mr. Mullally quizzes the Freshmen on the drama, "The Merchant of Venice."

TO KNOW, LOVE AND SERVE GOD.

Father gives a practical religious lesson: "Agere Sequitur Esse--If you act like a fool, you are a fool."

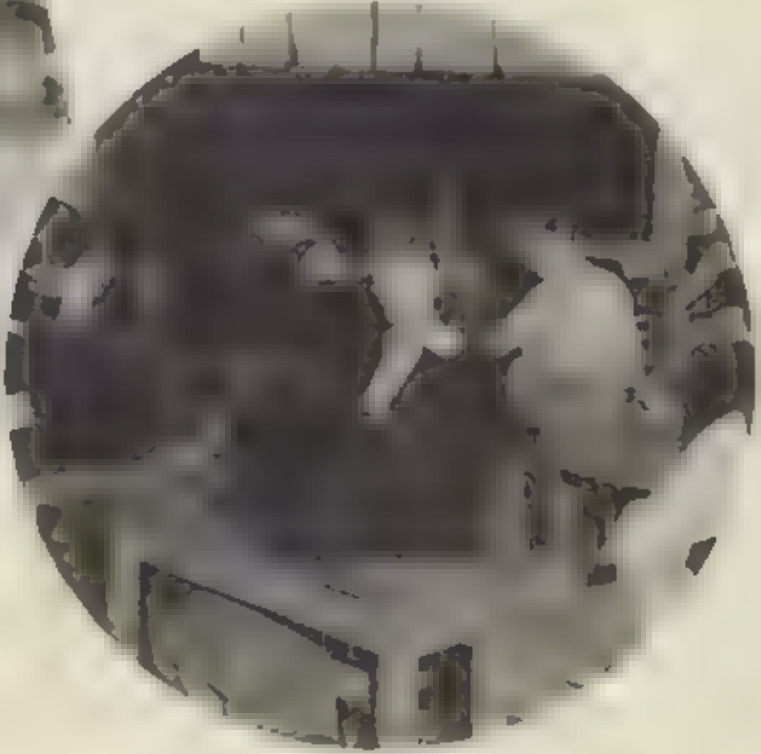

Mother Verona teaches the Juniors about the Integrity of the Gospels.

Sister Rita's Religion class learns about the Works of Mercy.

Second year shorthand students further their study in the shortcut to speed.

Typing skills acquired in second year typing are a must in a man's world.

WE PREPARE TO ENTER THE FIELD OF BUSINESS

Sister says: "Practice, practice, practice, to gain accuracy and speed."

Betty, Beverly, Ken, Dick, and Jackie aim for perfection in bookkeeping.

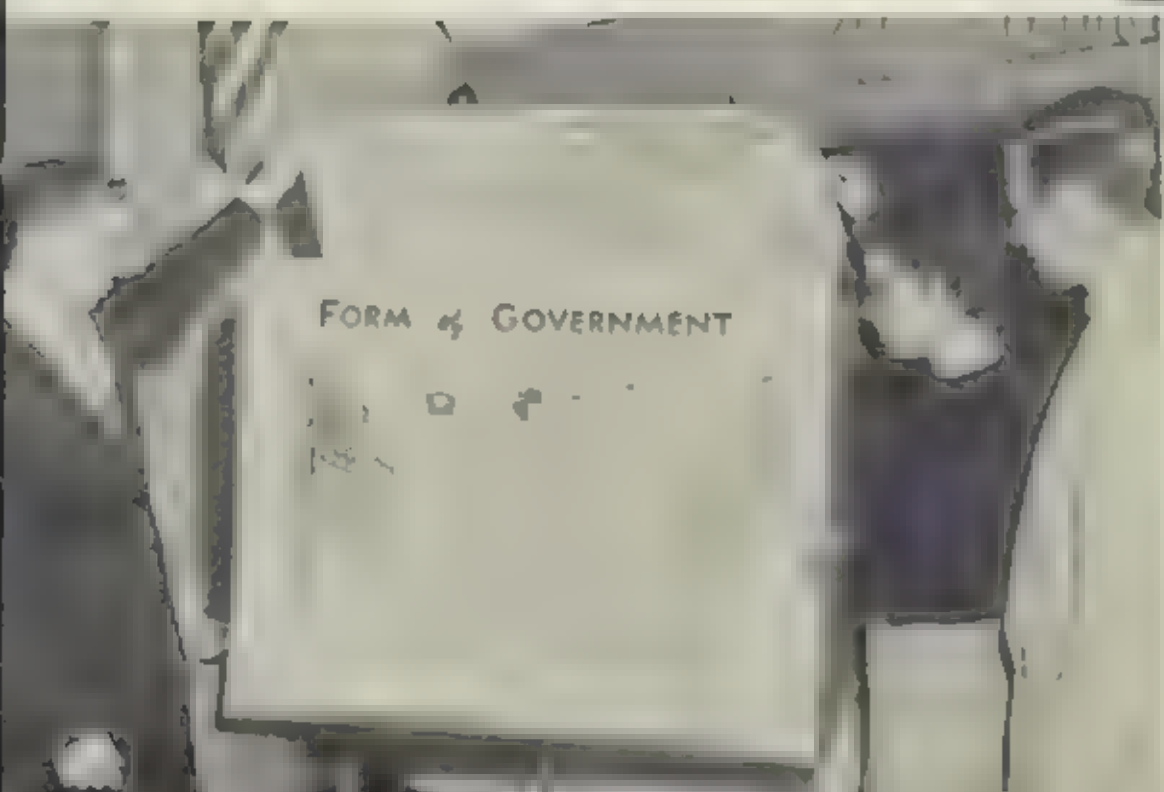

Latin I students are dramatizing a scene where the Roman judge is trying the Christians.

Veni Sancte Spiritus--Come Holy Spirit.

LATIN AND HISTORY ENRICH OUR CULTURAL BACKGROUND

Modern History students view the empire of Napoleon I.

Mary McGinty, Larry Green, and Tom Forgette discuss the principles of government.

MATHEMATICS THE KEY TO LOGICAL THINKING

Algebra I students work hard to learn this difficult subject.

The Try Angle is used often in Plane Geometry.

Solid Geometry students solve a problem using a model plane.

The drafting class draw a Vise Anvil while Sister Aquinata checks measurements.

Dan Kivett records his knowledge on sound, the unit which they are now learning.

SCIENCE - THE WONDERS OF GOD'S CREATIVE POWER

The students of Biology Class gather around Mr. Clemens to view some slides.

The Chemistry Class helps to protect the creative power of God.

WE PROGRESS

IN LEADERSHIP

STUDENT

'Have patience Bob, the meeting will soon be over.'

Community singing proves popular at a meeting.

COUNCIL

The representatives bring the views and problems of each class to the attention of the officers.

As a part of National Education Week, salutes were given to the High School faculty by various students.

VIANNITE

S T A F F

The four persons mainly responsible for the success of the yearbook are Editor, Catherine Beahan; Co-Editors, Joyce DeShano and Diane Dillon; and Advisor, Miss Rosemary Gazella.

Hours of work and cheerful help was given by the persons on the staff which include: John Seidel, Nancy Bigelow, Louella Pidcock, Gwen Griffis, Judy Whitaker, Sandy Melanson, Joan Connor, Betty Gerulski, Bridget Wruck, Beverly Gerulski, Sharon Stark, Joan Cole, Sandy Bohn, Janice Kollar, Barbara Eddy, Mary Jo Hughes, Chuck Gearing, Mary Ann MacLean, Mary Ann McGinty, Betty Nicolai, Jack Briggs, Robert Socher.

The senior staff members have the experience of running the paper from their work on it during their Junior year.

V I A N N E Y

Paper Advisor, Mr. Bester, helps layout an issue with Carol Forcier, Janet Aldrich, and Betty Nicolai.

H I G H L I G H T S

Junior staff members have the enthusiasm necessary to promote more interest in the paper.

LIBRARY AIDS

Books, Books, Books is the favorite theme of our library aids which include: Diane Dillon, Barbara LaBranche, Joyce DeShano, Jane Lajewski, George Paul, Joel Janowski, Janice Ward, Thomas Reno, Sharon Stark, and Thomas Beahan.

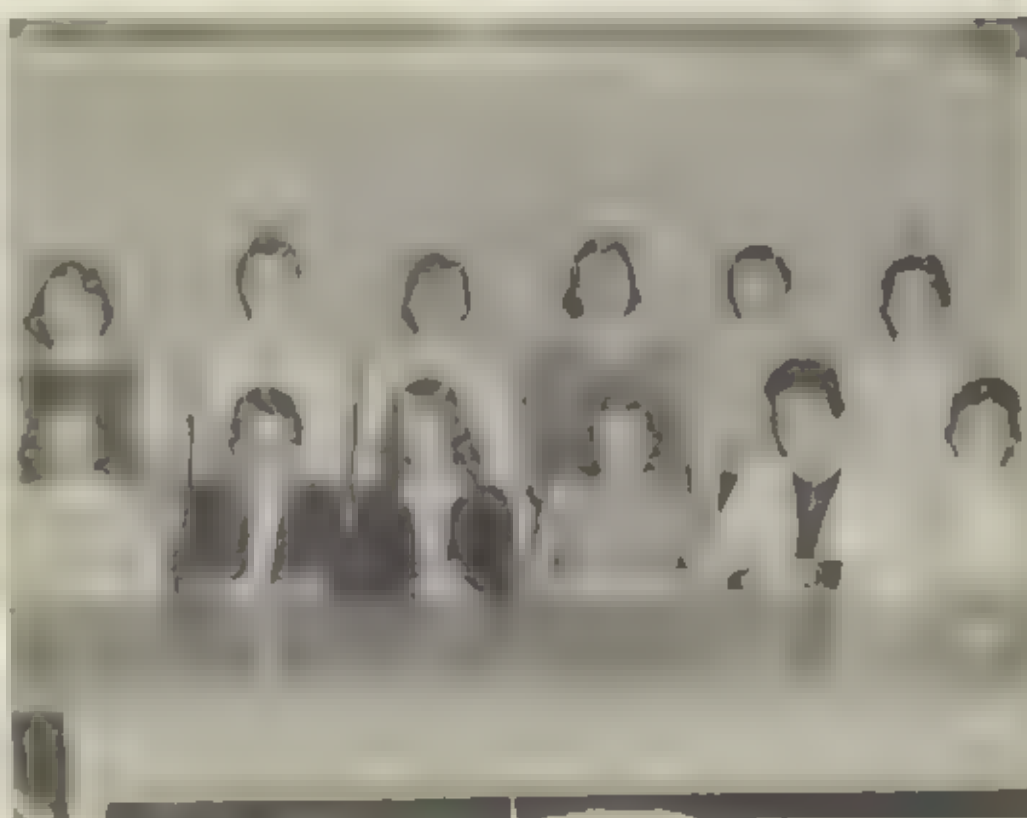

OFFICE AIDS

Office aids give Mother added help to make her work a little easier. They are: Colleen MacDonald, Mary Anne McGinty, Pat McGinty, Carolyn Chuchvara, and Judy Whitaker.

STUDENT SECRETARIES

BIOLOGY CLUB

The Biology Club provides further knowledge for those especially interested. The members are: Standing: Lawrence Ragnone, David Poletti, Ronald Douglas, and George Pidcock. Seated: Daniel Kivett, Mary Westhoff, Sandra Preston, Terence Kruse, and Arthur Sefcovi.

PEP CLUR

The pep meetings for football and basketball are planned and provided for by the Pep Club.

MUSIC PUTS THE WORLD

CHORAL

Students of both Choral groups present a Christmas program over the radio.

The mixed chorus poses gladly for the Viannite photographer.

IN PERFECT HARMONY

The singing of the Mass is performed by the fine Choir directed by Sister Charles Marie.

The Choir spends three noon hours a week to perfect the hymns.

CHOIR

The three senior organists: Joyce DeShano, Catherine Beahan, and Patricia Sartor provide the accompaniment for the Choir.

Members of the tuba section include:
Terrance Rudd, James Davis, Wynn Welch, and James Bates.

SAY IT

A newly organized band provides very enjoyable entertainment for the school on many occasions.

Members of the clarinet section are: Susan Hyde, David Miller,
Janice Kolarick, Sandra Preston,
William Philbrick, Garie Welch,
Joanne Stanton, and Nancy Kline.

Those in the trumpet section are: Kenneth Bruno, Ronald Harbin, Sandra Griffis, Harold Whittbrodt, and Robert Hawley.

WITH MUSIC

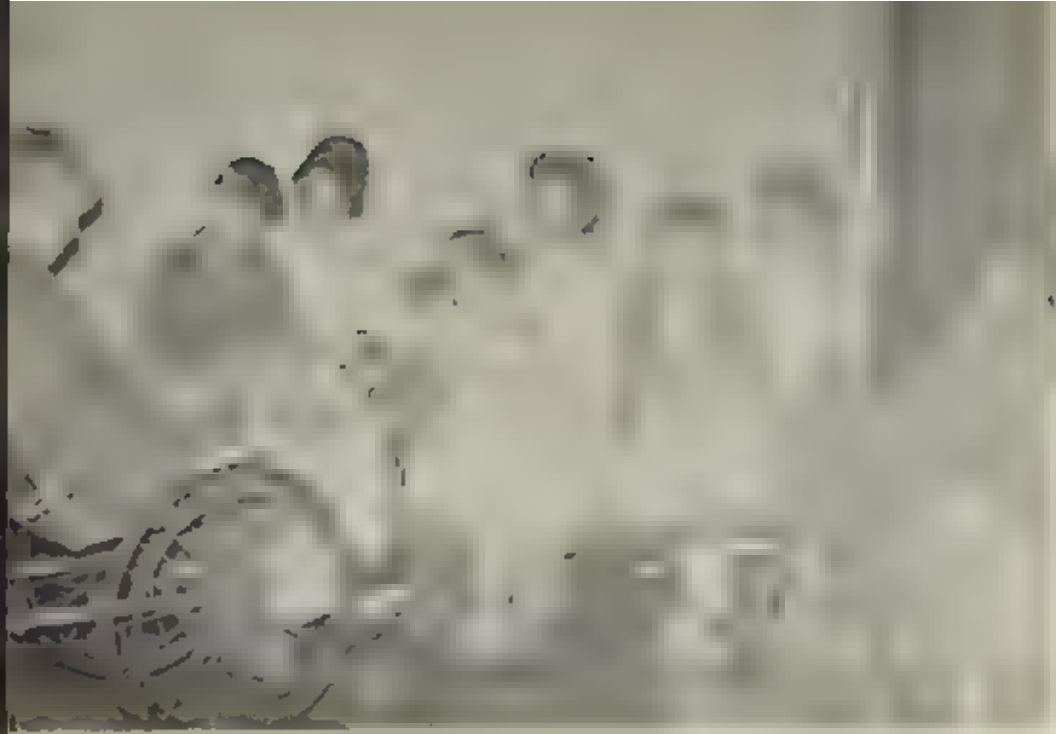

The Saxophone Section of the Band is composed of the following: Minda Clifford, Patricia Bacot, Betty Winters, David Romanowski.

Another view of the tuba section finds two members in addition to those in the first picture. These two are: David Grahek and James St. John.

The rhythm found in all music is aptly handled by the drummers, Gary Sammit, Ronald Douglas, Larry Ragnone, and Victoria Alkanbrack.

Future Nurses of St. Johns help on the children's ward at St. Joseph Hospital. The senior student nurses are, Diane Dixon, Sharon Stark and Sharon Reedy.

FUTURE TEACHERS AND NURSES

Members of the Future Teachers gain an insight into teaching as a career.

Students maintaining high scholarship and excelling in leadership, character and service are privileged to belong to the Siena Chapter of the National Honor Society.

To the room having the most students on the honor roll, a banner is presented. Receiving the award from Mother Verona on behalf of the senior class is the president of the senior class, Chuck Gearing.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Catherine Beahan

Joan Connor

These nine Seniors are members of the Siena Chapter of the National Honor Society. Membership is based upon their Character, Service, Leadership, and Scholarship. It is considered one of the highest honors that can be bestowed on St. John Vianney students and thus, this group is looked upon with great esteem.

RING BREAKFAST

The long-awaited day finally came! On December 5, 1956, the Seniors received their class rings.

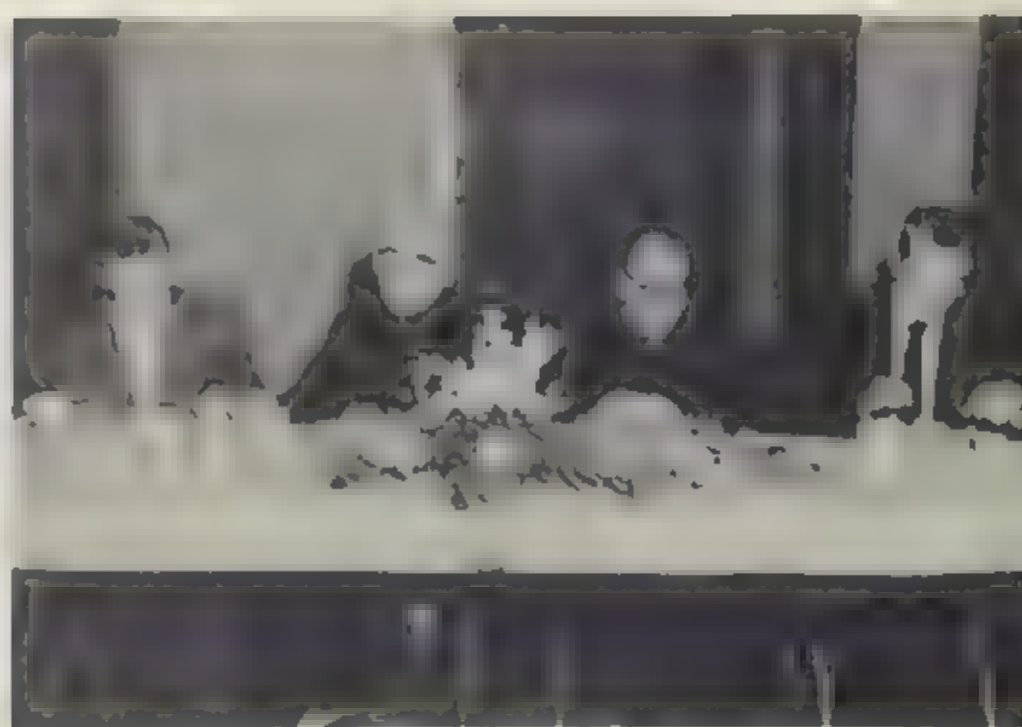

After Mass, Monsignor blessed the rings and presented them at the altar rail to each Senior.

A view of the speakers' table with our assistant Pastor congratulating the Seniors.

Bob Sochor, Chuck Gearing, Susan Hyde and Mother Verona gather their thoughts before they are called upon to address the Seniors.

Monsignor Mayotte, Fr. Reikowsky, Mr. Mullally and Mr. Clemens enjoy this special occasion.

They're proud of their rings!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

As the edition of the first "Viannite" goes to press, we wish to say "thank you" to everyone who has worked so hard in making this book possible.

We wish to say a very special "thank you" to:

Monsignor Mayotte and Father Reikowsky for their advice and interest. . .

Mother Verona for her encouragement and understanding. . .

Miss Gazella, our advisor, who worked so long and faithfully with us. . .

All our faculty members for their patience and co-operation during all the class interruptions. . .

Mr. Benmark and the Delmar Company for their guidance in our first annual. . .

Mr. G. Sharley, Mr. R. Campbell, Dr. R. Beahan and Mr. W. Gallagher for their assistance in photography. . .

Mr. LaPorte of the Catholic Weekly for securing necessary pictures. . .

Mary Anne McGinty and her ad committee who outdid themselves in bringing in ads and patrons. . .

Our advertisers who made our yearbook possible. . .

The "Viannite" Staff of 1957 hope that you will always cherish your annual and enjoy it as much as we enjoyed producing it.
